Antenna Connector Statement

To Whom it may Concern:

This device including the antennas are intended to be installed by professionals only.
The BNC connector is not a unique connector under the part 15C rules, and therefore professional installation of the antennas is required. This is pointed out in the User Manual section 1.1 (page 3).

Sincerely,

Mark Koop
