Question #1: In the request for confidentiality letter, operational description is listed as confidential document. However, same operational description is contained in the user manual. Based upon user manual can not be granted as confidential document, please remove operational description
from the request for confidentiality letter.

Question #2: The values on the schematic diagram can not be read.
Please provide a clear copy of schematic diagram.

Question #3: FCC Docket 01-278, 95-19 and FCC 03-149 has been published in Federal Register on Dec. 09, 2003 with effective date of Jan. 08, 2004.
All applications submitted after Jan.08 shall comply with ANSI C63.4:2001 procedures. In the test report, ANSI C63.4:1992 is used. Please confirm the tests were performed per ANSI C63.4:2001 and revised the test report to indicate the test procedure used.

Best Regards

Mike Kuo
