

General Description

The OL900 lift control is designed to provide a wireless link to operate a manned scaffolding lift. The transmitter resides in the bucket and sends UP and DOWN commands to the lower control unit. The lift will travel up or down as long as it is receiving the "UP" or "DOWN" data stream from the transmitter.