

General information BAG 1000

The headset BAG 1000 is a comfortably to wear hands-free headset for regular telephones (i.e. office telephone systems). The new BluetoothTM technology gives you the opportunity for reliable and bug-free wireless transmission to your existing telephone. The system consists of a headset and an audio gateway that ensures connection to the presently used telephone handset. This audio gateway can be used as charging station and as well for storing.