Gentlemen:

LinkaNet Labs Inc. respectfully requests that certain materials provided with the submission of the FIRELINK 2000 under FCC ID: OO8LNL001 be withheld from public disclosure in accordance with FCC regulations 0.459. The confidentiality request applies to block diagrams, schematics and theory of operation documents contained in Section 4 & 7. These items constitute Trade Secrets. The FIRELINK 2000 has been developed at considerable effort and expense by LinkaNet Labs Inc. Public access to the listed proprietary material could possibly result in duplication of equipment that could severely damage the company's advantage.

I appreciate your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Drayt Avera
