

VerNova is a new company who is filing for Application.
This is what their label will look like.
The label will be placed on the back of the Transmitter.

Label Wording as follows:

"This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation."