

PRO-FMNEW INSTRUCTION SHEET

It allows you to hear phone conversation through the car audio system (stereo).

Its audio frequency is FM96.1MHz.

All you have to do is to insert the plug into the car lighter and set your car radio channel to FM96.1MHz.

When the phone ring and the signal effective, upon acceptance of the phone call, the radio will stop for the receipt of the incoming call. The sound will be heard through the speakers in the vehicle.

User Informaton

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Caution:

The changes or modifications not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.