

IDENTIFICATION LABEL:

PROPOSED FCC ID LABEL

The FCC ID shall be permanently affixed to the rear side of the equipment

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| FCC ID : P3HXTR3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operations. |
| Made in Korea                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

