

The principle description of the Window Sensor

When the magnet is removed from the ‘Window Sensor’ , the reed switch is skipped from NO to NC. Then the 12V power is supplied from C8 and C7 both to encoder (sm5023s) by way of the transmitter circuit. It will simultaneously generate a frequency of 315 MHz; and the window open will be shown on the screen.