Vagn, please provide some additional internal photographs of bot units as described below:

FCC ID:P7Z440914A, please provide additional photographs of the larger PCB with the smaller PCB removed as well as the additional side of the smaller PCB which is not exposed in the current photos. This can be accomplished in a single photograph.

FCC ID: P7Z440914B, please provide additional photographs showing all sides of each PCB. There appears to be one PCB that is only visible from the edge in the existing photographs.

Completion of these Certifications will be completed upon receipt of these additional photographs.

Best regards,

Chris Harvey
