RE: FCC ID:PZLMC9620SG2UM application for certification

Gentlemen:

This letter is to address the filing of RF exposure information with this application. This device is intended to be used only at fixed locations. The maximum power output from a single channel 19.5 watts and the total maximum power output from all co-located channels is less than 1000 watts. Pursuant to Table 1 in Section 1.1307, this equipment that is to be certified under the referenced FCC ID is excluded from routine environmental evaluation for RF exposure prior to certification and use except as provided in Section 1.1307(c) and (d) of the Rules.

Sincerely,

Phillip Inglis
Consultant
