This is in regards to the statement "Information provided is deemed confidential" located at the bottom of the Attestation Statements exhibit described as FCC Notices. This is a form we supply for the customer purchasing the GPR unit in order to comply with the following:

FCC Section 15.525(c):

"The manufacturers, or their authorized sales agents, must inform purchasers and users of their systems of the requirement to undertake detailed coordination of operational areas with the FCC prior to the equipment being operated."

The statement "Information provided is deemed confidential" was added to satisfy the customer that their information would remain confidential when submitted to the FCC. It is our understanding that this is the case. If not, please let us know and we will remove the statement.
