The above information contains trade secrets and proprietary information not customarily released to the public. The public disclosure of this information might be harmful to the applicant and provide unjustified benefits to its competitors.

The Applicant understands that pursuant to Rule 0.457(d)(1)(ii), disclosure of this Application and all accompanying materials will not be made before the date of the Grant for this Application.

Pursuant to DA04-1705 June 15, 2004 of the Commission's public notice, we also require temporary confidential treatment of information accompanying this application as outlined below for a period of 180 days:

SHORT-TERM CONFIDENTIALITY:

Internal Photos

Temporary confidentiality for 180 days from public disclosure is important for NOVA Biomedical Corporation from a commercial perspective. It enables the company to complete its development and regulatory efforts prior to introducing the product to the marketplace. Releasing information on the product via the FCC website prior to formal market introduction can be confusing to our customers, and places the company at competitive disadvantage.

Sincerely,

Bobby Zinck
Senior Manager RA
