

Modular Radio FCC Label

The following Label is recommended for products containing the DART radio module in which the transmitter module is not visible itself.

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.
Made in USA
Contains Transmitter FCCID: R65DART1