

EX22437 RF & System description

-----Guidelines on Security code information for cordless phone

Our factory use Fixed code for facilitating variation of individual security codes in a certain geographic region

Each base and handset has a unique 40 bit ID (It has 2^{40} sets of security codes), to distinguish between different bases or handset. And it is sequentially assigned in factory.