To Whom It May Concern:

The following submittal is to apply for equipment certification for the Audience Interaction (AI) Wireless System. Garwood Laboratories, Inc. will be submitting this package on behalf of the applicant, IRIS Interactive Horizons, Inc. A letter authorizing Garwood Laboratories as an agent for IRIS Inc. is available upon request. The Audience Interaction Wireless System consists of two components, the AI Base Station and the AI Handset. Both units utilize the same transceiver circuitry. Testing to the requirements was performed on both units.
