

Product Operation Description

This product UB-3 is a belt set wireless microphone, which has two switching keys: one is for power on / off, the other is for sending audio signal. The product UB-3 equipped one indicator by the side of the switching keys, it would light when the power switching keys were on.

The main function of UB-3 is transferring audio signal to electric signal via micro, the input electric signal were deal with frequency modulated, amplified and transmitted the radio signal to relative receiver.