

Product Operation Description

This product UH-3 is a handset wireless microphone, which has two switching keys: one is for power on / off, the other is for sending audio signal. The product UH-3 equipped two indicator by the side of the switching keys, they showed the operation status when the two switching keys were selected.

The main function of UH-3 is transferring audio signal to electric signal via micro, the input electric signal were deal with frequency modulated, amplified and transmitted the radio signal to relative receiver.