

1.2. Operation Description

The EUT is a Body Temperature Monitor and includes a transmitter and a receiver. The transmission operates in 433.92MHz. The data modulation is ASK. The transmitter includes a temperature detector which measures the body temperature every 12 seconds. The measured data is transmitted to and shown on the receiver.