Post-Grant Confidentiality Request

FCC ID: ST8TRILOC01

We understand the internal photos exhibit of this product was made public on April 29 2013. We would like to request long-term confidentiality for the internal photo as they illustrate proprietary information to the general public. We use esoteric security screws and then cover the screws with a special wax to help ensure that the circuit board access is not possible by the user and do not want to illustrate the pictures.

We understand the SAR Test setup photos exhibit of this product was made public on Oct 26, 2013. We would like to request exceptional long-term confidentiality for the SAT Test setup photos as they illustrate proprietary information to the general public. We use esoteric security screws and then cover the screws with a special wax to help ensure that the circuit board access is not possible by the user and do not want to illustrate the pictures.

Yours sincerely,
