

Working theory description

This product is designed as Remote Control Car for children of 3 years and up.

After install batteries in remote controller and the car, children can play.

The basic function are as following:

- Press the key of remote controller to internal direction, the car will move forward.
- Press the key of remote controller to outer direction, the car will move backward.
- Turn the tyre knob of remote controller to outer direction, the car will turn right.
- Turn the tyre knob of remote controller to inter direction, the car will turn left.