

The AquaVizor system is comprised of pool monitoring pod that measures and transmits pool chemistry information to receiving information display that calculates and displays pool care information.

Figure 1 Full view of monitoring pod label location

Figure 2 Close-up view of the monitoring pod label location

Figure 3 Receiving information display

Figure 4 Electronics boards

Figure 1