

Project Lifesaver - Client Transmitter Battery change, Maintenance & Daily Testing

THIS INSTRUCTION PAGE MUST BE INCLUDED WITH ALL TRANSMITTERS SHIPPED TO PROJECT LIFESAVER AGENCIES

Client Transmitter Battery Change

1. Unscrew battery cap (with a coin or screw driver) counter clockwise 	2. Remove and replace old Tadiran battery, Complete Transmitter Maintenance
3. Add new Tadiran 30 day battery to Transmitter 	4. Place combined transmitter and battery into transmitter case
5. Screw cap on clockwise until it stops and cap is level with transmitter case bottom 	5a. Correct Cap position – line up FCC imprinting with edge of Transmitter case

FCC COMPLIANCE: The transmitter is authorized by rule under the Low Power Radio Service (47 C.F.R. Part 95) and must not cause harmful interference to TV reception or Federal Government Radar.

CAUTION: Any changes or modifications to this device could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.