

The following product label will be affixed to underside of the product in close proximity to the AAC input connector and readable after installation.

