

Lable Location

alternative Lable Location:

in case the label is located in the battery compartment, the battery cover AND the battery will be removed in during shipment (in the package), so that the FCC label can be clearly seen when unpacking and installing the device out of the shipping box.

