

Back of the device

Label location

The diagram shows a large gray rectangle representing the back of a device. A smaller, light orange rectangle is positioned on the left side of the gray rectangle, indicating the location of a label. Both rectangles have a thin blue border.