

October 06

Equipment Authorization Division
Federal Communications Commission
7435 Oakland Mills Road
Columbia, MD 21046

FCC ID: UMN-PSR-1400
Product Name: PSR-1400

October 26, 2006

Request for Confidentiality

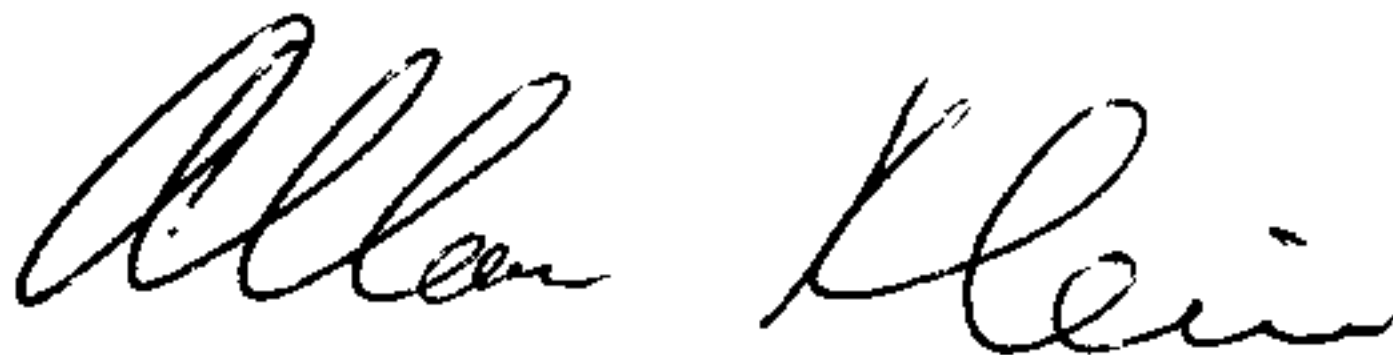

Pursuant to Sections 0.457 and 0.459 of the commission's rules, we hereby request that the following documents be held confidential:

1. Draft User Manual (Installation and operating instructions)
(Document: Draft User Manual.pdf)
2. Operational description
(Document: FCCPart15 Operational Description.pdf)
3. Block diagrams
(Document: FCCPart15_Unintended radiator.pdf)
4. Photos showing internal construction and component placement
(Document: FCC Internal Photos.pdf)
5. All schematics and parts lists
6. Description of modulation technique
(Document: FCCPart90 Modulation.pdf)
7. Technical responses to several individual FCC sections
(Document: Intentional Radiator app.pdf)

There are two primary reasons for this request for confidentiality:

1. The product covered by this submission is a Perimeter Surveillance Radar, which is intended for use in a number of high-security applications, including some for military use and homeland security. If made available to the general public, the above material included as part of the submission could be used by potential intruders to assist them in developing techniques for avoiding detection or for defeating the surveillance system. This could potentially compromise the effectiveness of the security system.
2. The above material also contains trade secrets and technical data that would be customarily guarded from competitors.

Sincerely,

Allan Klein
Program Manager
Amphitech Systems
450-663-4554, ext 322