

FCC ID Label information:

The label size is 19.5 mm X10 mm and because of the size of this device is too small to be placed the other required statement, the following will be placed in the user's manual:

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.