Response to CRN75243

Dear Tim:

This is in response to your email dated August 26, 2009 requesting additional information on the above-referenced FCC ID. Please see below our responses to your questions pertaining to the Portable Cellular/ PCS CDMA Text Device.

1. Please see attached user's manual. The FCC requested information is stated on pp. 17 and 33-34.
2. Please note that this issue was addressed with the applicant during the initial certification. PCTEST is currently awaiting the applicant's updated response regarding this issue.
3. At the time of this application (May 2007), the Permit-but-Ask procedure was not yet in existence. The required 1.5cm spacing provided by the supplied cover was addressed with the applicant during the initial certification. PCTEST is currently awaiting the applicant's updated response regarding this issue. Under further guidance from the FCC, PCTEST would amend the grant remarks accordingly.

Should you have any questions or comments concerning the above, please contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

Randy Ortanex
President
