

1. Transmitter could get Power from Car lighter directly, can be used in any car.
2. When power on (DC convert circuit) connecting with U disk, this device can directly read music file and restore audio signal through digital processor chip. When connecting with audio equipment, this device can transmit audio signal to antenna through FM transmit circuit. Press the button to select song or frequency point, the name of song or frequency point will display through high-light digital tube. This device can also memorize playing state (song or frequency point) through integrated chip when power off.
3. The transmitter's output FM channel is from 88.1 to 107.9MHZ with a 100 KHz step.