

Electronic Text Messenger User Manual

To activate, pull out the plastic tabs on the back of the device.

When the device is first turned on you must first set the time before using other functions. See setting time instructions below.

GENERAL

- You can only receive a message when your device is on. Messages sent to you when your device is off cannot be retrieved.

YOUR UNIQUE ID

- Each device is pre-set with a Unique ID Number. In order to send a message to another device you must know that person's Unique ID Number.
- To find your own Unique Id Number select CONTACT, keep selecting ▼ until you reach the last entry, USER ID, select ENTER. Your Unique ID Number will be shown.
- Before you can send a message to a friend's device you must either enter their Unique ID Number and name into your contact list, enter their Unique ID Number every time you send them a message, or store their Unique ID Number in your Contacts from a message they have sent to you.

INBOX FUNCTIONS

- The INBOX can store a total of 14 messages.
- If there are unread messages the envelope icon will display,
- If there are between 11-13 messages in your inbox the full icon will blink,
- When your inbox has 14 messages the full icon will stay on,
- If your Inbox is full then you must delete some old messages before you can receive any new ones.
