OK	#	Non-Conformity or Comment	Submitted Response
X	1	Please provide a cover letter explaining the nature of the changes made to the product. Please identify the approved antennas for this product.	A cover letter requesting a PCII has been uploaded.
X	2	The confidentiality letter references Document DN-11123 which is not provided in the filing (is this supposed to be DN11132A?) TCB Suggests using generic categories instead of specific file names. In this case, the categories of Parts lists and schematics would cover the necessary requirements.	A revised confidentiality letter has been uploaded.
X	3	The confidentiality letter requests DN-10049 to be held confidential, which contains internal photos of the equipment. Please note that the FCC does not accept this type of request without further justification of the request. Please either change your request or provide further justification (eg, the device is not available for sale in the consumer market, cannot be purchased without authorization from a hospital, etc. - whatever the case may be.)	A revised confidentiality letter has been uploaded.
X	4	Has RF exposure been addressed to this change? Please provide a copy of the SAR report for this filing.	RF Exposure files have been uploaded.
