Dear Iris,

Please address following issues.

Q#1: Per 15.19, the label should include following requirements:

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation. Please revise.

Q#2: : According to Part 2.1033, a block diagram shall include frequency of all oscillators in the device. Please revise.

Best Regards,

Lucy
