Subject: Modification guidelines Toshiba model AT100/105
FCC ID: VV7-MBMF5521GW1-T

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter confirms that Toshiba understands that the Toshiba tablet (Model AT100/105) installed with a Mobile Broadband Module F5521GW contains the following FCC ID on the outside of its product; "Contains FCC ID: VV7-MBMF5521GW1-T".

Due to the nature of this device certain aspects of the design are critical to FCC acceptance and cannot be changed without written permission of Ericsson AB (the grantee).

Critical elements in the design include:

- WWAN antenna specifications and location, in "WWAN antenna specification" and "RF Exposure Photos" exhibits
- WLAN Antenna specifications and location
- WLAN modules not listed in this application, which is Granted for C2PC integrating into AT100/105.
- G Sensor type, location, operation, in "SAR Technical Document" exhibit
- Any portion of the device that affects the transmitting function of the F5521GW module

Any change to critical elements of this device as tested will result in a new FCC ID being applied to this device, and, any necessary FCC activity related to the new FCC ID will be Toshiba's responsibility.

Toshiba agrees and understands that all changes relating to this platform (Model AT100/105) that affect the sensor and SAR value require approval by Ericsson AB.
