Overview

Qorvus Systems, Inc. is seeking a change of identification as specified under 47CFR 2.933(b). The original product was certified for Meshdynamics under FCC ID:UZU-MD5 on 6-21-2007. This equipment is identical to the original equipment and the original test results continue to be representative.

Recommendation

All items have been resolved and completed to my satisfaction; therefore I recommend this application for approval.
