Operation Principle

First of all, the data will be removed from the PC to the memory of the USB by data channel. The controller controls the R/W speed, and it also controls the data saving in which Die. The is a crystal connecting beside the controller, and it supply the clock frequency for the controller. The power supplies by the PC.