

Operation Principle

First all of operation system files must be copy to the system memory card → power on the product → load the system memory files to the RAM and CPU chip →Run the system → solution will be adopted digital signal into analog signals by the display card and sound card → After low-pass filtering to the TV or VGA monitor output and the headphone output, the output is after we have seen the desktop and heard the music.