

Liquidity Services Asia

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

WARNING: changes or modifications not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

