

Photo 1 – Label Location

Note: Due to the unit's small size, the following warning, normally included on the label, will be included in the user manual:

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.