

Labels Positions

Front label:

The front label will be positioned on the front side under the clear plastic window.

Main label

The main identification label will be placed on the back side in the submerged part of the surface.