

- NB : because of the type of antenna used, all compliance measurements were made in radiated test modes and thus specific antenna characteristics (such as gain) are not required