

Operation description

The product KNE's automatic cleaning system include two parts, one is control box with a 433.92MHz receiver, and the other part is the clean frame. The two parts connect together with one signal cable. And should use together. It can receive the control signal from the corresponding transmitter to be controlled the working conditions. The receiver receive control signal from the transmitter. After demodulation, The product will operate as control signal from remote controller.

The remote controller has four functions. 1) water spray 2) wiper 3) water spray + wiper 4) Stop