

Back of the EUT

The SIM slot opening is located next to the battery compartment. The end users need to remove the battery firstly in order to install the SIM card, otherwise the SIM card cannot be installed due to physical restrain. The label located in the battery compartment will be visible to the end users when they install the SIM card at the first-time-use.