

OPERATING PRINCIPLE

TX: When some buttons of the transmitter are being pressed, the transmitter is coding and regulating the signal of buttons, then emit the signals by the radio wave.

RX: The receiver receives the radio wave signals from the transmitter, the receiver gets the signals from decoding, then changes the pins relevantly, the relay will operate, so the outlet is being controlled.

