End-user Agreement

Please read this Agreement carefully before operating, and guarantee that:

1. Do not disassemble this product without authorization;
2. Do not read or refresh the firmware through non-normal channels;
3. Do not perform reverse-engineering or disassembling to any software and codes of this product;
4. This product and the Agreement can be transferred to a third party only when the terms and conditions in this Agreement are accepted.

When you transfer all or any part of this product to a third party, the permission to use this product terminates automatically.

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

Changes or modifications not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

Instructions for User's Manual:

Before operating, please read the User's Manual carefully. We are not responsible for any direct or indirect losses caused by hardware damage, application damage, file lost or system crash due to improper operation.

It is assumed that you have carefully read and understood the Agreement, and will abide by the terms and conditions.
